2. The questions proposed to Candidates are to be dictated to them at the commencement of the examination upon each branch, or subdivision of a branch, and are not to be circulated in printed form.

3. Each Examiner is to furnish the Registrar with a copy of the questions proposed by him at the written examination, with the view to their being ultimately printed under the direction of the Council, if considered necessary.

4. The written answers to questions are to be handed to the Registrar, who will open the envelopes, and to each set of papers affix a number by which the author shall be known by Examiners during examinations. The Registrar will then deliver the papers to the Examiners.

7. The papers on the subjects of the general examination are to be finally submitted to the whole Board for approval or rejection; and those of the special examinations (in Homœopathy or the Eclectic System of medicine) to the Examiners approved of for that purpose by the Representatives of those Systems in the Council.

The questions of the Examiners in Homœopathic or Eclectic specialties shall be dictated immediately after those of the other Examiners in the same branch, and are to be taken down by all the students. But only those who have given notice in accordance with clause 7 of SECTION 3, will be required to answer the special Examination papers.

The packet is then to be handed to the Registrar or some one deputed by him. Neither signature, number nor sign is to be written or marked upon any of the sheets enclosed in said envelope.

14. In using abbreviations, Candidates will take care to use only those which are generally understood, or which cannot be mistaken.

15. No Candidate will be allowed to leave the Hall after the questions are given out, until his answers have been handed in.

16. No student will be allowed in the Hall during the hours of examination, except those actually undergoing examination.

17. Any Candidate who has brought any book or reference paper to the Hall, must deposit the same with the Examiner, immediately before the commencement of the examination.

18. Candidates must not communicate with each other while examinations are going on, either by writing, signs or words.

19. Any infringement of the above rules will lead to the exclusion of the person who is guilty, from the remainder of the examinations.

20. Each Candidate will receive a ticket from the Registrar, which will contain a list of the subjects in which he has to pass, and which will admit him to the Examination Hall during the progress of each of such Examinations, and no other.
